ISSUE

I. Tax Administration – Penalty

Authority: IC 6-8.1-10-2.1(d); 45 IAC 15-11-2

The taxpayer protests the late penalty.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The late penalty was assessed on the late filing of a monthly sales tax return for the month of September 2003.

The taxpayer is a company with operations in Indiana and headquartered out-of-state.

I. Tax Administration – Penalty

DISCUSSION

The taxpayer requests waiver of penalty as the taxpayer has a history of timely payment and the taxpayer has been responsible in the handling of tax duties. Furthermore, the taxpayer asks the Department to consider the severity of the penalty relative to the offense. In this instance the taxpayer is being penalized a very substantial amount for being one day late and where no intentional delay occurred.

45 IAC 15-11-2(b) states, "Negligence, on behalf of a taxpayer is defined as the failure to use such reasonable care, caution, or diligence as would be expected of an ordinary reasonable taxpayer. Negligence would result from a taxpayer's carelessness, thoughtlessness, disregard or inattention to duties placed upon the taxpayer by the Indiana Code or department regulations. Ignorance of the listed tax laws, rules and/or regulations is treated as negligence. Further, failure to read and follow instructions provided by the department is treated as negligence. Negligence shall be determined on a case by case basis according to the facts and circumstances of each taxpayer.”

The Department finds the taxpayer was inattentive of tax duties. Inattention is negligence and negligence is subject to penalty. As such, the Department finds the penalty proper and denies the penalty protest.

FINDING

The taxpayer’s penalty protest is denied.
